To whom it may concern:

My name is Amen Hamdan, and I am currently working as Senior Manager for software development at the BMW ConnectedDrive Lab China in Shanghai. Since April 2012 I had the pleasure to supervise Yiguang Lu in the course of this internship at our department.

During his time at our lab he was involved in different projects, sometimes even in parallel. He was always able to obtain a deep understanding of the required solution and how to utilize software technologies to achieve the required target. He showed a rich understanding of all aspects of software development, both on a theoretical as well as on a practical level. This is especially true for development heavy tasks involving complex programming. He was working both in the automotive application context with on-board software as well as on off-board features like mobile applications.

Even though Yiguang is more on the silent and calm side personality wise, he grew to become an important part of our team with strong technical skills. I have enjoyed getting to know him as a person and find him to be very curious, interested and open for any challenge. I have no doubt that his skills, focus, and determination will help him in his future career. Since we are not able to offer him any position within our lab for the time being, I wish him all the best and would be happily available for any inquiries.

Kindest Regards
